

What - Laluna in a bathroom?

Yes! Don't they look great

- A multimillion pound penthouse in central London with views of the Houses of Parliament
- A recent total redesign and refurbishment by Residence Interior Design
- Laluna chosen in the guest bathroom to create a 'wow factor'
- "As this was the first time I had work with fibre optics I was very reassured to have Crescent's expertise on hand every step of the way." explains Stephen Dick of Residence Interior Design
- CRE6220 Crescent's high output tungsten halogen projector was discreetly installed in a void several metres away.
